

MEADOWS MUSEUM
SMU • DALLAS

Anonymous: Capital from Madinat al-Zahra (ca. 965)

Family Day

Activities for adults and children to enjoy entertainment and participate in a hands-on project.

Drawing from the Masters

An afternoon of informal drawing instruction by a local artist held in the galleries. Designed for adults and students over 15.

Gallery Talks

Talks featuring art research and perspectives from guest speakers

Studio Program for Adults

A local artist leads adults in creating a hands-on project

Music at the Meadows

Concerts held in the main gallery featuring music that relates to the exhibitions. The Orchestra of New Spain is often featured.

Access Programs

Visits to the museum tailored for individuals with special needs.

- Programs for individuals with early stage dementia
- Programs for individuals with visual impairment

- Free lectures

 - Wednesday series:

 - Luis Martin, Professor Emeritus of History, SMU

 - Symposiums

 - Gallery talks

 - Gallery openings

- Travel opportunities

 - Led by Mark Roglan, Museum Director

- Publications

 - At the Meadows magazine

 - Monthly email “This Month at the Meadows”

Concrete Improvisations
COLLAGES AND SCULPTURE BY
ESTEBAN VICENTE

MAY 15-JULY 31, 2011

Echoes of the Past: The Buddhist
Cave Temples of Ziangtnangshan

September 11, 2011 – January 8, 2012

Meadows Museum Hours of Operation:

Tuesday-Friday 10:00 a.m.-5:00 p.m.

Saturday 10:00 a.m.-5:00 p.m.

Sunday 1:00 p.m.-5:00 p.m.

Thursdays until 9:00 p.m..

Monday CLOSED

Admission to Exhibitions and Upper Galleries:

$8 for adults, $6 for seniors 65 and over, $4 for students. Complimentary admission on Thursdays after 5 p.m. Meadows Museum members and children under the age of 12 are admitted free.

Free public tours are offered as follows:

Permanent Collection: Sundays, 2:00 p.m. with museum admission. Special Exhibition: Thursdays, 6:30 p.m. when museum admission is free.